Sir, 65844

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of report No. 2037 dated 7-4-1919, received from the Amildar, Bangalore Taluk, relating to the attack made by six Panjabies on one Nanjunda and his wife Puttamma in the tank-bed at Dombloor village, on the afternoon of 6th April 1919, and of their having snatched away the gold addikay and two strings of gold beads.

The Inspector of Police, Ulsoor Police Station (C. & M. Station Bangalore) to whom the Patel sent the report has registered a case of dacoity, which he intends transferring to the Bangalore Taluk Kasba Police for investigation, as the occurrence has taken place in the latter jurisdiction.

The Inspector of Police, Bangalore Taluk has taken up the inquir and proceeded to the spot.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore District.

Letter dated 6th April 1919, from the Inspector of Police, Ulsoor Police Station, C.& M. Station, Bangalore, to the Station House Officer, Bangalore Police Station, Fort, Bangalore.

--o--

At about 5-40 P. M. 6-4-1919 the following report from patel Ramiah of Dombloor village was received in this station.

To-day one Nanjunda and his wife Puttamma of this village went to bed of Chellaghatta tank for the purpose of carting manure; while they were loading the cart, six Panjabis approached them and dragged Puttamma away forcibly. Her husband Nanjunda tried to rescue her but the above said Panjabis assaulted him and hurt him and threw him down.

In the meanwhile people in the neighbouring locality assembled and produced all parties before me. Hence this report. Further, two of the Panjabis have pulled off a gold addige and two strings of gold beads from Puttamma's neck and have absconded. Four of them have been secured. It is very hard for me to send them in charge of any body as they are very rowdy. I request you to go over personally and take charge of them at once.

On receipt of this report I immediately went to the scene of occurrence which was pointed out by complainant and his wife which is within the limits of Bangalore Taluk Station.

Four of the six accused who were secured by the villagers were taken charge of and handed over to the Military Authorities for safe custody.

A case has been registered by me (No. 56 Section 395 I. P. C.) and will be transferred with the necessary records records to day under orders.

As the offence occurred with-in the limits of Bangalore Taluk Station, kindly arrange to have the further investigation taken up at once by you.

Arrangements should also be made with the Officer, Commanding, British Remount Training Depot, to which the accused belong with regard to their further detention or otherwise.

Sd/- B. Subbaraya Sastry,
Ulsoor Station, Sub Inspector.

NOTE.

The Taluk Inspector in his Kanarese report No. 2037 of 7-4-1919 states that he has gone to the spot and will submit the F. I. R. as soon as it is received by transfer from the C.& M. Station Police.

In the meantime the people who were in the neighbourhood arrived at the scene of occurrence. By the time assistance could arrive two of the delinquents snatched away a gold "addike", necklace and decamped while the other four accused were secured by the villagers.

Memo

This relates to the case of dacoity No. 67/599 (18-19) that occured on 6-4-19 at Domlur village, Bangalore Taluk wherein Nanjunda and his wife Puttamma were attacked by six Panjabi Sepoys in the tank bed, two of the sepoys pulling away gold beads from Puttamma's person.

The report of the patail of Domlur village regarding this reached the Ulsoor Police Civil and Military Station on 6-4-19. As the occurrence took place within the Bangalore Taluk limits, the case was received by transfer by the Bangalore Taluk Police on 7-4-19. The Taluk Inspector took up the investigation.

Nanjuda stated as in the Patail's report and added that on Sunday the 6th April 1919 after loading the cart with the tank bed manure he and his wife Puttamma went towards the Survey trees to collect fuel. Six Panjabi Sepoys approached them from the Waste Weir of the tank eating sugar cane. Two of these went near him and returned to join the others. A dwarfish Panjabi then came to him and talked to him in his (Panjabi's) language. On his making signs that he did not understand the language, the Panjabi went and joined the rest. He felt troubled and s left the place hurriedly with his wife. The Panjabies then chased him and his wife and caught hold of her. He tried to pull her away when one of them hit him hard with a stick on the right arm. Another hit him on the head and back. Three of them carried his wife towards the trees. He and his wife were crying loud for help all this while. Several villagers turned up, seeing which the Panjabis left Puttamma to herself and began to run away but the villagers chased and caught hold of four of them. Puttamma, his wife told him in the village that the Panjabis had snatched away her string and gold beads.

The matter was then reported to the Patail of the village who reported the occurrence to the Ulsoor Police.

Puttamma stated likewise. Witnesses Thammanna, Mari, Mota, Sambuga and Lakkamma, Muninanjamma and Muniakamma stated that they were tending cattle closeby when they heard the alarm. When they went to the spot they said Nanjunda being attacked by three Panjabi's and three others carrying away Puttamma towards the tope. They pelted stones at them. When others came to the spot, the Panjabi's ran away, the villagers giving them chase. They did not know that the Panjabi's had snatched away the string of gold beads.

Witnesses Yellappa and Andi stated that hearing the alarm they ran to spot when they saw three Panjabi's attacking Nan-junda and three others carrying Puttamma towards the tope. When the Panjabi's saw the villagers gathering, they let go Nanjunda and Puttamma and ran away. Witnesses and others chased them and caught two of them midway between Kodihally and Thippasandra. Two others were caught near Bannamangala, while the remaining two made good their escape.

Reddigar Veerappa, Chennappa and Balappa stated that on the day of occurrence they were loading carts with manure near the arrack shop at Kodihally when they heard great noise near the waste weir of the tank. They went towards the place. Yellappa and others were chasing six Panjabi's. Learning that these had attacked Nanjunda and his wife, they joined the party and caught four of the Panjabi's as above stated, while two effected their escape.

Witnesses Vullarappa, Thimiah and Dyavappa stated that o the afternoon of the day occurrence they were in the tope near Kodihally when they saw six Panjabi's being chased by the villagers of Domaloor and Dorenahatty. Seeing this witnesses went across and caught two of them between Kodihally and Thippasandra assist-assisted by Erappa, Nanjundappa, Yellappa and poojiga. Ullappa Gundappa and Thimmia caught another two while two others ran away.

Poojiga stated similarly.

I went to the spot and learnt from the Witnesses the above facts. A requisition has been sent to the Officer Commanding the British Remount Training Depot to have the arrested four Panjabies in custody till the close of the investigation.

The witnesses were shown the Panjabies with the per-mission of the Military authorities but they were unable to identify the two who ran away. The string of gold beads could not be secured.

The Officer Commanding the British Remount Training Depot Bangalore in his requisition No. 7595 B dated 12-4-19 received through the District Superintendent of Police of Civil and Military Station, has intimated that the case against the Panjabies would be tried by the Military authorities and that the case should be sent over to them.

The Taluk Inspector intimates that the case is charge-sheeted before the city Magistrate on 19-4-1919. He has been directed to move the court through the City Prosecuting Inspec to transfer the case to the Military Authorities for trial through the proper channel.

Superintendent of Police,

Bangalore District.
